

October 17, 2016

We highly recommend SENHAM Events for any bride or groom interested in planning a day to remember. From the time I started planning our vow renewal, I was bent on doing everything myself. As time went on, I realized that I needed the help of an expert and Nyla Ham was there for me. She took over the reins and got to work! I had a vision in mind as my husband and I had been married in a civil ceremony 16 years prior. I felt that we were taking this step which meant the world to us so it had to be done right. Nyla knows my personality and she let me send her copious ideas to the point of exhaustion and she never made me feel that what I wanted was out of reach. She was going to make it happen. We renewed our vows on September 30, 2016 and it was truly a day to remember. Having never planned a wedding before I had no idea about the first thing I needed to do, all I knew was that I wanted it to be an elegant affair. I called her and asked for her services and she did not blink an eye, she said ok and was with me to have my first meeting with my photographer within one day. Due to my work commitments I was unable to find time to plan a wedding how I wanted it so I set up a Pinterest, which Nyla followed to get ideas of what I wanted. She communicated regularly with me and kept me updated on the progress of our function. She texted me pictures of items she came across on her outings keeping me in mind. Several of the special touches from the day would not have been thought of if it was not for her. The night of our rehearsal dinner, she went above and beyond to go back to the hotel where my girls and I were staying and set up the gift bags in a circle on the bed so that by the time we arrived, the girls would be surprised and were they ever! It was a beautiful tribute to those who held my hand along the way. On the wedding day itself, I was absolutely blown away by just how much coordination and preparation Nyla and SENHAM Events had done. From the morning of our day there were a number of workers setting up for the big event, I couldn't believe how beautiful everything looked. It was much more than I could have done or dreamt of. Nyla facilitated the vision for our renewal and made it the best day of my husband's and my life. Nyla is full of energy and she never sat down the entire night, she allowed me to truly enjoy the planning as well as the events leading up to the day. We are forever grateful for the work, commitment, passion and enthusiasm that she demonstrated for our vow renewal. Our guests are still talking about it being such an elegant affair and I owe it all to her. Thank you once again Nyla Ham and SENHAM Events for your expertise to ensure our vow renewal was a huge success, you went above and beyond any expectation a couple could have.

Kind regards
